MAGIC AND MYSTERY!

Here are some ideas if you like all things magical and mysterious. Let's weave some spells and get cunningly creative!

Are you a Harry Potter fan? How about this for inspiration? Imagine you are on the Hogwart's Express and the goodie cart stops at your compartment. What will you get? There are Cockroach Clusters, Levitating Sherbet Balls, Cauldron Cakes, Ice Mice, Pepper Imps and Jelly Slugs. And so much more. Choose your favourite. What happens when you eat it? Where will your story go?

You could set a mystery story in a deserted castle! Just imagine that someone has sent you an anonymous letter suggesting you need to investigate a centuries-old mystery. No-one has visited the castle in years but you have to get in there to find a casket which will solve everything! Where do you start?

It's been lots of fun creating all the materials for Inkpots Inc. How about setting up your own Magic Club? You would need to find some friends who love magic, spells and potions as much as you do – and then you can design all the things you would need. Send us your designs!

If you are an artist, how about creating your own magical castle – will it be a spooky one, or more like a Disney one? What makes your castle so special? Maybe unicorns live there!

Of course, you may prefer to draw a real castle – especially if you live near one or go on a school visit to see one.
