GETTING STARTED

Here are a few ideas to get going with Inkpots Inc.

- You might find it a good idea to keep all your Inkpots things in a folder. Then all your membership information and your writing and drawing, and other bits and pieces can all be kept together.
- Do you like stationery? We love nice pens and notebooks at Inkpots – so if you have special ones, you could keep those with your folder too.
- It's really, really important that you enjoy your writing and drawing. Don't worry too much about things being absolutely right – we can always help you sort bits out if you are a bit concerned.
- Writers and illustrators are good observers – we are usually excellent at noticing small details that can then be included in stories and pictures. Make sure you make a note of these things when you are out and about.
- Remember to use all your senses – for example, if you do visit a castle try to record what the stone feels like, what smells you discover, how much can you see from the narrow-slit windows? Is it very cool inside the building itself?
- Really let your imaginations fly! We quite like crazy ideas here at Inkpots! Tell us all about them!
- Your page on the website is ready for you to start using whenever you are ready. There is also space to include a short description about yourself – but it is completely up to you. Any material should be sent to gill@inkpots.org
- Have FUN!
